

Subex has won a five year contract to deploy its revenue operations centre (ROC) fraud management and revenue assurance solutions for MTN across the operators' 14 networks in Africa and the Middle East.

The solution provides continuous monitoring and revenue protection, detects potential revenue loss and assist operators with the investigation, diagnosis, and recovery of these revenues.

Commenting on the partnership, Nazir Patel, group chief financial officer, MTN Group said, "We were looking for a partner to collaborate with us to address our revenue fortification requirements. Subex was selected for this deployment after a highly competitive bidding process."
