

Bharti ties up $354 million in overseas loans

Finance, February 15, 2005

Bharti has tied up $354 million in international funding. While $254 million has been raised from Swedish export credit agency EKN, $100 million has been extended by FinnFund of Finland. ABN Amro was the lead arranger for these facilities. The funds will be deployed for expanding Bharti's mobile service networks and for new circle rollouts.
