

Anubrata Biswas has been appointed as managing director (MD) and chief executive officer (CEO) of Airtel Payments Bank.

In his new role, Anubrata will be responsible for driving Airtel Payments Bank's mission of taking convenient and innovative digital banking services to the doorstep of every Indian.

Prior to this, Anubrata was the joint general manager and retail business head - South India for ICICI Bank. In his previous role he was responsible for managing the retail banking business across 550 branches of the bank.

Anubrata has a bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering from Jadavpur University and completed his PGDBM from IIM, Ahmedabad.

His predecessor, Shashi Arora had quit the company in December 2017, following a controversy in which Airtel was hauled up by the authorities for opening payments bank accounts without requisite approvals and consent of subscribers.
