

LinkedIn has appointed Ashutosh Gupta as country manager, India effective September 2, 2019.

He will be succeeding Mahesh Narayanan, who was the country manager for LinkedIn's India operations from January 2019 to June 2019.

Gupta had joined the company in 2013 to lead LinkedIn's marketing solutions (LMS) business in India, and then moved to Singapore in 2016 to build LMS' online sales organisation (OSO) for Asia Pacific and China (APAC).

In the past, he has worked with organisations like Google, Cognizant, and Infosys.

Gupta will report to Olivier Legrand, LinkedIn's managing director for the Asia Pacific region and will join the company's APAC senior management team.

In addition to his new role as country manager, he will continue leading the LMS OSO for the APAC region.
